

LIBBY FERRARI CONSULTING

LIBBY FERRARI CONSULTING

Libby Ferrari Consulting is a specialist advisory firm offering strategic guidance in Stakeholder Engagement, Indigenous Relations, Land Use Agreements and External Affairs. Founded by Libby Ferrari - a respected, globally experienced executive with over two decades in mining and community relations, our work is grounded in strong values, relationships and long term impact. We work across many sectors and continents, providing the bridge required to supporting industry, government, Indigenous organisations and not-for-profits to navigate complexity with trust, respect and purpose.

Core capabilities

Indigenous Land Use Agreements and Benefit Sharing: end to end experience in leading agreement making and benefit sharing arrangements between industry and First Nations peoples across Australia (Western Australia, Queensland, South Australia), Canada and South America.

Stakeholder Engagement & Indigenous Relations: 20 years experience in bringing together the aspirations of communities with the objectives of industry to create mutual benefit and multi-generational outcomes.

Government Relations and External Affairs: high-level advocacy and influence with national governments, NGO's, Boards and the investor community on critical issues including stakeholder relations, heritage protection and mining and sustainability.

Our services

Stakeholder Engagement

Indigenous Relations

Indigenous Agreement making, land use and benefit sharing

Government Relations

External Affairs

Sustainability

Strategic Planning & Business Improvement

Director Profile: Libby Ferrari

Libby is a seasoned mining industry professional, having worked in mining since 1999 and most recently former VP External Affairs BHP. She holds qualifications as an Environmental Scientist and an MBA. Her career has spanned multi-commodities, many global jurisdictions and across operations and senior leadership positions in External Affairs, Community and Indigenous Engagement, Environment and Business Improvement functions.

Libby's most valuable skillset lies in stakeholder relationships, having built deep, trusting networks cultivated over her 20+ year career.

+61 411275347

libby@libbyferrariconsulting.com

libbyferrariconsulting.com

Linked In <https://www.linkedin.com/company/libby-ferrari-consulting-pty-ltd>

